

Learn more about this conference for parents and professionals.

Arizona Autism United (AZA United) is offering super early registration discounted rate through December 2015 for their April 29th and 30th 2016 Transdisciplinary Autism conference. The cost is $85 for one day and $145 for both days if registering through December 2015

This conference is for parents and professionals. For information about the conference and details about the Keynote Speakers, go to www.regonline.com/2016autismconference or call 602-773-5773. Presentations include a wide range of topics for parents and professionals of all backgrounds, with practical strategies to assist children and young adults of all levels. As always, many presentations include free CEUs for Board Certified Behavior Analysts (BCBAs).